

I would like to express my opposition of the Consumer Bankers Association (CBA) attempt to weaken Indiana's Telephone Privacy law. Although I may have a business relationship with one of these entities, I would prefer that they not be able to call me as often as they want. I would prefer to conduct business with them at my initiation, not as a result of their solicitation.